

30 Day English Speaking Challenge: Family

Week 3: Travel – Day 15: Vacation

Question: Did you take any family vacations when you were a child? If so, where did you go? If not, where would you have liked to have gone?

Vocabulary:

1. Growing up: refers to the progression of your childhood years

When I was growing up I didn't like to eat many vegetables, but now that I'm an adult I eat them all the time.

2. Road trip: a journey in a motorized vehicle, often a car or bus

I always make sure to buy plenty of snacks and drinks before heading out on a road trip.

3. Always looked forward to: a common expression used to talk about favorable memories from the past

I always looked forward to buying school supplies before the first day of school when I was young.

Vanessa's answer:

When I was growing up, my family always took a road trip to the beach. We spent one week at the beach, and I always looked forward to playing in the water, digging in the sand, looking for seashells. This was a great family time together. I hope that my kids have these wonderful memories of childhood vacations too.
