

30 Day English Speaking Challenge: Family

Week 4: Food – Day 22: Favorite foods

Question: What were some of your favorite and least favorite foods as a child? Has this changed as you've gotten older?

Vocabulary:

1. Picky eater: doesn't like a wide variety of foods

My brother is such a picky eater that he even refuses to eat chocolate!

2. Easy to please: not fussy, easily satisfied

John is so easy to please that he didn't even complain when he was served the wrong meal at the restaurant.

Vanessa's answer:

When I was a child, some of my favorite foods were the typical pizza and ice cream, but I've never been a picky eater. The only foods that I didn't like as a child were sweet potatoes and salmon. But you know what? Now I love those. So I guess in general, I've always been easy to please when it comes to food.
