Week 4: Food – Day 25: Eat out

Question: Do you like to eat out? What's the best restaurant you've ever been to? What made it stand out?

Vocabulary:

1. Eat out/go out to eat: to go to a restaurant and eat a meal there

We went out to eat to celebrate our anniversary.

2. Food truck: a large vehicle equipped with facilities for making and selling food

Our school is having a big event and there will be lots of food trucks there.

3. More trouble than it's worth: not beneficial enough to justify the effort involved

Sometimes I feel like putting up Christmas lights is more trouble than it's worth because we only leave them up for about a month.

Vanessa's answer:

Honestly, now that I have kids, I don't eat out that much. The best times that I go out to eat are when my husband and I are on a date and we have a babysitter watching our kids. But when we do go out to eat as a family, we like to go to a big venue that has a food truck so that we can casually eat and play outside at the same time. Otherwise, eating out gets to be more trouble than it's worth with our kids, so we try to keep it casual.
